I'm glad life is given to us bit by bit,
In minutes and Days and Years;
For if we were faced with the whole of it
How filled it would be with fears.
With all its laughter and all its pain
Its sorrow and joy and care –
Why, even its beauty all at one time
Would be more than we could bear.
But God drops a bit of happiness here,
And lowers a shadow there,
And each of us has his own portion of both,
The bitter and the fair.
And, whether the way be rough or fine,
Its comforting to know,
We've only one step to take at a time,
Just one little day to go.
